St Mary's Catholic Primary School, Gorleston

After consultation with Bishop Alan and the school governing body, we felt that the time had come to acknowledge that the primary school should link more closely to the parish of St Peter the Apostle in Gorleston, in which most of the children reside. A new name, St Mary and St Peter Catholic Primary School, will celebrate the school's connection with its nearest parish church while preserving the historical connection with its former neighbouring church. This will be effective from 1st September 2015. The new name proclaims clearly our desire to move forward together, and symbolise our unity. The new school logo has been designed by Mrs K Ricketts, Deputy Head of St Mary's and was then digitally created by East Norfolk Sixth Form student, Luke Welch. A fantastic collaboration that has led to a super design to lead the school into the next stage of its future.
